Menu of options

Cover can be tailored to match a company's needs and budget. The options available include:

Basic benefit

- Up to 80% of the member's salary (or 50% for equity partners)
- Deferred period of between 8 and 52 weeks
- Paid until state pension age, or limited to 2, 3, 4 or 5 years
- 3 definitions of incapacity; insured occupation cover, gainful occupation cover, or combined cover
- Whether benefits being paid stay at the same level or increase each year

Employer's National Insurance Contributions (NICs)

Cover for an employer's liability to pay NICs on a member's basic benefit.

Long-term supplementary benefit

Employers use this to cover employment costs that may continue when a member is on long-term sick leave
– e.g. pension contributions, holiday pay, group life premium or company car allowance.

Equity partners can use the benefit to cover their share of the partnership's normal costs of running the business.

Short-term supplementary benefit**

Paid for 6 or 12 months to cover the extra costs that can arise when an employee is absent from work
– e.g. the costs of recruiting temporary or replacement staff.

Final lump sum benefit**

With a limited benefit payment period, there is the option to cover a final lump sum, normally a multiple of basic benefit. The definitions of incapacity for the lump sum are; insured occupation cover, gainful cover or serious illness.

Initial lump sum benefit

A lump sum benefit payable if a member is diagnosed with cancer, heart attack or stroke and is absent from work for at least 14 days as a result.

Employee pension contributions

Covers the contributions employees make to a company pension scheme.

** Available to employers covering 20+ employees.

Cover depends on policy – terms and conditions apply.

Special policy types

Flex

Includes a core benefit funded by the employer with the option for employees to increase their cover.

Simplicity Income Protection

An Income Protection policy with simplified options and administration.

Pay direct policy

A policy which gives the option to pay basic benefit to a former employee after they have left service.
