

Vocational rehabilitation services consent form

DEFK0531

Unum uses your personal information to enable it to effectively administer the insurance policy and also to meet its legal obligations, including complying with current data protection laws. A key service available to employers and employees is our vocational rehabilitation service.

Important

Before providing consent, please read the notes below carefully as it outlines your statutory rights concerning the processing and use of your personal and medical information which will be required to assess your suitability for our vocational rehabilitation services.

Generally, Unum will not require your medical reports or records to provide vocational rehabilitation services but where this is necessary, we will explain why and request your consent to obtain such information. A separate consent form and details of your statutory rights will be provided at the relevant time.

If you would like further information concerning your rights please contact the Information Commissioner on 0303 123 1113 or visit its website: www.ico.org.uk

In these notes "Health professional" includes but is not restricted to a registered medical practitioner, for example, your GP, consultant, occupational health consultant, dentist, nurse, midwife or health visitor.

How information relating to you will be processed

1. All information relating to you, will be held electronically. Information will be processed fairly and lawfully in accordance with the principles of current data protection legislation.
2. Access to information concerning you will be limited to employees, appointed advisors and contractors of Unum, for example, independent health professionals who need access in order to provide vocational rehabilitation services.
3. Our website at www.unum.co.uk/third-party-datasharing details the companies that we will share your personal information with relating to Unum providing vocational rehabilitation services.
4. Telephone conversations and emails are monitored and recorded for the purpose of training and in the interests of improving the quality of service that we provide. You will have the right to request that a call is not recorded.
5. With the exception of the circumstances detailed in this section, Unum will not discuss any information about you, including your medical condition, with anyone other than yourself without your consent. This includes your spouse, other relatives or friends or your legal advisor. In certain circumstances you may wish for Unum to discuss your vocational rehabilitation needs with certain parties. In this case we will obtain your express consent to do so in advance.

6. Medical and non-medical information about you will be shared with your employer in relation to your return to work and vocational rehabilitation services.
7. If you wish to access the information that we hold about you, you should submit a request in writing to: The Data Protection Officer, Unum, Milton Court, Dorking, Surrey, RH4 3LZ.
8. In order to meet our legal obligations, Unum will keep data for up to 7 years following conclusion of the use of Unum's vocational rehabilitation services, or where the use of vocational rehabilitation services is in connection with a claim, 7 years after the end of a claim, whatever is later.
9. You are not obliged to give your consent but if you do not then it is highly likely that we will not be able to offer vocational rehabilitation services.

Further details regarding how we process information about you can be found on our website at www.unum.co.uk/privacy-notice.
